to to meet charges of supplying Stout and thick soo to the disinfecting staff as was done during the last two outbreaks. The Chief Plague officer reports that there were 7 casualties among the disinfecting staff during this outbreak and he thinks that the mortality was due to most of them catching infection while at work with their worn out and useless boots. In anticipation of Sanction the Chief Plague officer was instructed to provide some of them with Stout and thick soots and the rest of the gang will have to be shortly provided for.
The undersigned therefore requests that Sanction may be kindly accorded to the same in the October budget
